Born in Vietnam and raised in California, Aidan Nguyen is currently working as a Senior Analyst for the economic consulting firm of Greylock McKinnon Associates in Boston. Aidan provides analytical and statistical support for lawyers and testifying experts in litigation cases involving anti-trust, mergers, market timing, and intellectual property across various industries. Previously, he has worked for Deloitte & Touche, Ernst & Young, and the American Bar Foundation. He graduated from the University of Chicago with a BA in economics and political science.

Aidan is the former Board Director and Chair of the Social Networking Committee of NAAAP Boston. In his two years with the Boston chapter, he has helped it become one of the largest chapters in the country, winning three national awards of excellence in 2009. In his spare time, he enjoys volunteering for the Sunflower Mission organization, which builds schools and provides scholarships in rural regions of Vietnam.
